The Chicago Republican Ward and City Committee met last night and agreed to pledge themselves to vote for and sustain the policy of paying the interest on the public Treasury the interest on all public funds deposited in bank. There is no issue which any man, not hopelessly corrupt, or wilfully blind, can consider of any vote upon. We affirm, and we know, that a large portion of the funds now being used by the Ring to elect their ticket, is paid upon the understanding that the practice heretofore pursued in regard to interest is to be continued through the next municipal administration.

The Democrats have carried Philadelphia on Tuesday by about 5,000 majority. At the October election last year the vote stood as follows:

|---|---|
| Republican | 30,000 |
| Democratic | 25,000 |
| Republican majority | 5,000 |

It will be changed by the Republicans that from 25 to 30 hundred Republicans were left behind in voting lists were killed by the Democrats, and, to put a stop to such practice, a stringent registry law was passed by the Legislature, by means of which only legal voters can get into the ballot, and by the aid of Republican registry officers in the city by four thousand majority without permitting fourth anything like their full vote.

It is currently reported that the parties immediately interested in the South Park have been "whooped up" by the Library Hall Association for its carry on the grand old campaign cry, the interest of the Chicago Home idea. It will be highly prudent, as we are constrained, for the gentlemen to agree to be bamboozled in this manner. The South Park is going to sell enough property to pay the interest. It is a "sold" proposition upon the Supreme Court; and the only solicited difficulties of party, we submit, are to let it work itself out. The only way to give it a serious check is to array a political issue against the interest, and this can only be done by the immediate friends of the park appealing, as a unit, one or the other side in politics, or allowing these parties to be "whooped up" by the friends of earthbound. We believe that these gentlemen are well advised with worldly wisdom to counsel such a blunder.

MR. H. H. HOND, of the British and Illinois Citizens' ticket, is an Illinois Central Railway ticket. Mr. Hond undoubtedly knows such a ticket when he sees it, but we are constrained to differ with him, for the following reasons: the United States District Court has decided that it is not in the power of the city of Chicago, or of the Legislature of Illinois, or of both combined, to abrogate the ground which the railroads on the lake shore have been trying to get. It has been in the hands of the Federal courts for years, and has not, as yet, cost a perpetual injunction against their attempt to occupy it. Hence, it makes no difference who is elected to any office, so long as any others object to such tomfoolery.

Again, Mr. Thomas Hoyne, the Chairman of the Citizens' Committee, was the Senate attorney of the parties engaged in retaining the ground of the lake shore. It is a matter of superior virtue is to be set up on the score it may certainly be claimed for the ticket which Mr. Hoyne was instrumental in presenting to the people. But this allegation against the Citizens' and British ticket, and Mr. Hond, be by those who make use of it.

There is a current report on 'change, and in Louisville, which is the headquarters of a convention called some days ago at Memphis. This convention originated in a laudable desire to invite capital and labor to the productive fields of the South, by building up that productive industry which that region has been so admirably adapted by nature. Those States have navigable streams, and unlimited water power. They have immense beds of coal, and of other building stone. They have fields adapted to the growth of cotton, rice, tobacco, sugar; they have mountain slopes upon which can be raised wool enough to supply the country; they have vast grass valleys, where herds of horses, and mules may range with comparatively little cost. The only element absent is enterprise. To make all these available, there are needed labor and capital. The South has an abundance of labor, but it will not employ it, but stubbornly insists upon applying to white labor, in mining, the principles of the half that every white laborer who goes to the South will only go there to become the tiller of his own land, the master of his own plantation. The men of the South make it an unchangeable determination to labor in the sense of the wages class, when they should invite it as an addition to the population, to take, own, possess and cultivate on its own terms. What man of intelligence will go South to labor as an artisan, or as a mechanic, where there are millions of land acres open to him to select his own farm from, free of cost, and on which he can raise in independence and plenty?

Failing to get labor which will not claim ownership in the land it cultivates, the gentlemen of the South have invited capital. But capital is only valuable as a means of employing labor, and the political scourge of the South, who fail to see that one thousand agriculturists moving into their country, and each becoming the owner and cultivator of a 200-acre farm, is a valuable addition to the wealth-producing labor of the State,—in the blindness of despair, resort to holding conventions, and to advertising the world that they yet hold in mental memory the value of Stonewall Jackson; will never be forget that the last white man's party in Jackson County Legislature knew a man named Stephen Carr, at Edwardsville, in that county, so honest that he could be trusted with the office of Master in Chancery, and while the officers were on a drunken spree, that he was the only man in the prisoner, the regulators took Carr from them and hung him on a tree. A letter dropped upon the burgess may have occurred near Carr Spring, Jackson County.

The Midland Courier of Dec 19th says: "Mr. John Cowan, of Salem Township, this county, died on the 8th inst., in the 101 instant, at the remarkable age of one hundred and nine years and ten days. He had always enjoyed good health up to within a few days of his death. His wife died about one year ago, at a good old age. Mr. Cowan was the father of nine children. The death of this centenarian leaves our venerable Boston town-ship without a citizen. Boston, we believe, is the only town in the county."

The New Albany Commercial of the 19th says: "Mr. Jacob Pfister, of Silver Creek, this county, died on Saturday last, at the advanced age of 101 years, 11 months and 20 days. He was born in Switzerland, and came to this country when he was 21 years old. He was a soldier in the war of 1812, and was present at the battle of New Orleans. He was the oldest man in the county."

The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard learns that, on Monday, Mr. Charles H. Snow, a member of the Board of Commissioners of Wake County, entered the office of the board, after the adjournment of the day, he was met by L. N. B. Smith, a well-known lawyer of that city, who at once demanded that he should abandon his Republican principles. Mr. Snow replied that nothing would induce him to do so. Smith then struck him with his cane cross-ways. Smith, as if to carry out the "striking" process, struck him on the head with a pistol, inflicting a severe wound. Smith then, it is said, attempted to shoot Mr. Snow, but was prevented by a by-stander. Smith then left the room, and Mr. Snow, who was bleeding profusely, followed him into the street, and was about to strike him with a stick, when Smith drew a pistol and fired at Mr. Snow, the ball passing through his hat. Mr. Snow then left the scene, and Smith was arrested and bound over in the sum of $1,000 to keep the peace. The wound inflicted by the pistol-shot is not considered dangerous.

The Republican Convention of Wake County, N. C., on Saturday, nominated a full county ticket, headed by Col. Wm. Hyman, for Senator, and Col. Wm. Hyman, for Representative. The platform declares that the Republican party is the party of progress, and that the Democratic party is the party of reaction; that the Republican party is the party of the future, and that the Democratic party is the party of the past; that the Republican party is the party of the people, and that the Democratic party is the party of the aristocracy; that the Republican party is the party of the working men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the idle men; that the Republican party is the party of the poor men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the rich men; that the Republican party is the party of the laboring men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the non-laboring men; that the Republican party is the party of the honest men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the dishonest men; that the Republican party is the party of the intelligent men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the ignorant men; that the Republican party is the party of the virtuous men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the vicious men; that the Republican party is the party of the moral men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the immoral men; that the Republican party is the party of the religious men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the irreligious men; that the Republican party is the party of the Christian men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the infidel men; that the Republican party is the party of the law-abiding men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the lawless men; that the Republican party is the party of the peaceful men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the violent men; that the Republican party is the party of the liberty men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the slavery men; that the Republican party is the party of the free men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the slave men; that the Republican party is the party of the free speech men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the free speech men; that the Republican party is the party of the free press men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the free press men; that the Republican party is the party of the free thought men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the free thought men; that the Republican party is the party of the free conscience men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the free conscience men; that the Republican party is the party of the free men, and that the Democratic party is the party of the free

Annual Report of the Town Treasurer—Where the Money Goes.

Tax Levy for 1869—Large Increase of Values.

South Park Tax.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees of the town of Hyde Park was held on Wednesday evening to hear the annual report of the Treasurer, and to consider matters on the proposed tax levy for general purposes for 1869. Present, Messrs. Cady, Cook, Bowles, Perkins and Wentworth. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the following report was then read. Mr. S. C. Ayres, Treasurer of the town of Hyde Park, in account with said town:

One word more from the Treasurer's report, and that is in relation to the matter of the incorporation of manufacturing and mechanical establishments. Here is a new industry which will be of great benefit to the town, and which should be encouraged by the Board. The Treasurer's report was then received and placed on file, and ordered published.

The Clerk read the following report of the Assessor, which was received and placed on file, and ordered published:

To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the Town of Hyde Park:

GENTLEMEN—In accordance with the provisions of the statute, I have the honor to submit the following statement of the assessment of property in the town of Hyde Park for the year 1869, which has been in round numbers,

| | |
|---|---|
| For 1868 | $ 4,000,000 |
| For 1867 | 3,000,000 |

HEATING THE COURT HOUSE.

The Court Rooms are being supplied with stoves. Some of the rooms have been heated by stoves in order this means of warming their rooms. The experiment of heating was so great that Superintendent Sexton has ordered the stoves removed, and permanent under the present enlightened plan for the heating of the rooms. During the winter, and in the summer, there was some considerable, and in the summer, there was some considerable, annoyance on the part of the building contractors, and the public, in the heating of the rooms. The experiment has been a costly one. The heating, by the present plan, will be carried on by steam, and will be very much cheaper. The Superintendent has also ordered a new set of water closets to be put in the basement of the building, which will be a great convenience to the public.

THE TURF.

RACING AT DEXTER PARK.

The third day's racing of the Dexter Park Fall Meeting was not greatly attended. What with the heavy, cold weather, and the unfortunately monotonous character of the programme, a large number of those who had intended to go to Washington Park to witness the Fall Meeting of the Driving Club, decided to remain at home. Little Chief, Nelson, and Sun Flash, the favorites in the first and second heats of the first race, were all beaten by Lucky Clark coming next in each heat.

First Race—As soon start was made, with Lottie in the lead, Harvey Gold and Sun Flash on her quarters, and Nellie Clark and Little Chief next. Nellie and Harvey Gold soon fell back, and Sun Flash moved up steadily for the leader, which Lottie maintained to the first quarter pole, when Lucky Clark passed her, and Sun Flash, Little Chief, Nelson, and Nellie Clark followed in the order named. Time, 1:08½.

Second Heat—Sun Flash was left at the post, and was a different aspect, Lottie having changed places with Harvey Gold. They got away at the fourth attempt, Harvey Gold's flight of tastings. The latter soon passed Lottie's flight of tastings. The latter soon passed Lottie's flight of tastings. The latter soon passed Lottie
